

1.3 General requirements to apply for a visa

General requirements to apply for a tourist visa

- Valid passport.
- Reservation or round-trip ticket.
- Consular fee payment in the Peruvian consular office in your country of residence.
- Filled-out visa application form. APPENDIX I. (Page 85)
- Two recent Passport-size color photos with white background.
- Police Record Certificate.
- Hotel reservation or tour package that evidences your tourist status.
- To prove economic solvency according to the length that you are requesting for staying in the country, or a valid international credit card and/or bank statements.
- Once the application is submitted, a personal interview will be required.

General requirements to apply for a business visa

Besides the documents required for a tourist visa, you shall submit:

- A letter of economic solvency issued by the company you represent during your stay in Peru.
- A letter issued by the company or union which is sending you to Peru (letterhead paper, written and/or translated into Spanish) specifying the purpose of your visit and stating that you have enough economic support to cover all your expenses during your stay in our country, including the requested length of stay.
- Letter from the Peruvian company if the trip is linked to a national specific counterpart.
- If you are traveling on your own, you should submit an affidavit attesting your business status.